

PSALM 23

A Song about God's Character

1. GIMME FIVE! Read Psalm 23 and quickly write five things David tells you about God's character.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

2. Rate from most true to least true the following statements: Use letters A through F, with A being most true and F being least true. Place a letter by each statement.

- _____ God is there to follow us all the way.
 _____ With God we get what we want most of the time.
 _____ Comfort comes from knowing God's presence.
 _____ When hard times hit, God throws us a picnic.
 _____ God tends us like a caring shepherd.
 _____ A hard time is a godless place to be.

3. Finish these Sparkplug Sentences:

When I hear David's description of God, what strikes me most is...

If I wrote a song about God's character in my own words, I would begin "...

Because of David's psalm I know that...

4. Bible Echoes: Read Romans 8:38-39. In what way does what Paul writes here echo what David wrote in Psalm 23:6?

5. BOIL IT DOWN, DUDE!

If you could boil Psalm 23 down to a single sentence, what is the message you are invited to live with every day?
